CHILDREN'S CURRICULUM

All kindergarten and elementary-aged students are required to take beginner and intermediate drawing classes as a prerequisite to some other classes. Skills learned in these foundation classes are essential to the Artsplace program. Our children's drawing curriculum is as follows:

- Beginner: Includes contour line, flat color, texture, mirror image, negative space and volume drawing. Media are Flair pens and markers.
- Intermediate: Reinforces beginner concepts with more detailed projects including some shading and volume drawing. Students can repeat Intermediate classes multiple times as this will reinforce drawing skills. Lessons and subjects vary with each session. (Prerequisite: Beginner)
- Advanced: Includes perspective and dimensional drawing, and introduces different media. (Prerequisite: Intermediate)

- Tuition is payable in full at the time of registration.
- Non-resident fees for classes (810 prefix) are $10 per class title, for workshops (811 prefix) are $5 per workshop title
- If a class is canceled, postponed or rescheduled you will be notified at least 3 days before the original start date of the class. Should a class be canceled, your fees will be refunded.
- For withdrawals after registration, consideration will only be given for a medical or family emergency upon written request, less a $15 administration fee.
- There are no make-ups, refunds, or credits for students missing a regularly scheduled class. Classes not held due to inclement weather or instructor absence will be rescheduled.
- Classes run for 7 weeks except where noted in schedule.
- Artsplace accepts cash, checks made out to "CPFA", Mastercard, Visa, Discover and AmEx credit cards (see registration form).
- Unless otherwise noted, all standard supplies are included in the price of Artsplace classes/workshops.
- We appreciate your help in making Artsplace a nut-free facility.
- No news is good news! If you have not heard from us, you will be expected in class at the prescribed day and time. If in doubt about the status of a class, phone us. If applicable, please list second choice for classes.
- It is important that ALL STUDENTS, children and adults, attend the first session of a class to avoid missing critical information. If you will be late for or absent from any class, please call Artsplace so that your instructor is not waiting for you.

No regular classes: 9/19 (Yom Kippur); 10/6 - 10/8 (Columbus Day); 11/6 (Election Day); 11/22 - 11/24 (Thanksgiving).
